Winner—B. f, by Dunbar—Damage.
Went to post at 3:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. Maid of Dundee finished strongly after coming to the outside on the stretch turn. She had to go all around her field to get to the front and made up much ground under a hard drive. Badger ran well, but was tiring at the end. Miss Thomey ran her race. Stuyve and Sallie Green raced each other into exhaustion.
Scratched—24647 Miss Blarney, 33.

Winner—B. or br. f, by Badger—Ouida.
Went to post at 3:52. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of three. Ethel Wheat stole the race in the first quarter. She opened a big gap before the others got to going well and hung on gamely when it came to a drive. The race will no doubt improve her. Senator Beveridge was under a hard drive all through the last quarter. He hung after he caught the leader. Isobel closed a big gap, but she pulled up lame. Wild Pirate tired in the last sixteenth. Mr. Phinizy ran poorly.
Scratched—24745 General Mart Gary, 119; 24648 Scarlet Lily, 102; 20813 June Gayle, 99; 24648 Hernando, 91.

Winner—B. c, by Falsetto—Patroness.
Went to post at 4:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. His Eminence was much the best and went to the front with hardly an effort after being bumped into and sent to his knees in the first furlong. He is a good colt and easily the master of those of his age now here. The Puritan was hustled along all the way and was driving hard at the end to stall off Driscoll. The latter was next to the inside rail and in close quarters. Sannazaro was cut down in the off hind leg. Joe Frey made no showing and is clearly out of form at present.
Scratched—24582 Alard Scheck, 117.

Winner—B. c, by Wagner—Mildred.
Went to post at 5:01. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Whitfield caught Moses tiring a sixteenth out and finishing strongly, beating him in the last stride. Moses showed all the most early speed, but he was made too much use of and tired. Peat was outrun all the way. Locust Blossom was given an easy ride.
Scratched—24678 Uhler, 105; 24680 The Butcher, 103.

KENILWORTH BEATEN.

Kenilworth and Miss Bennett, two of the best three-year-old sprinters in the west, locked horns yesterday at Worth, and the meeting between this pair proved a great drawing card.
Kenilworth has been almost invincible on the Pacific Coast during the past winter and Miss Bennett's sprinting ability is well known to the Chicago race-going public.

Miss Bennett carried 100 pounds and Coburn, while Kenilworth had Jesse Mathews as a pilot and was asked to shoulder 115 pounds. The distance was at five and a half furlongs and Miss Bennett was the one favored by the public, being backed from 6 to 5 down to 4 to 5, while Kenilworth receded from 3 to 5 to 11 to 10. The pair got away together and raced like a team at a terrific pace to the head of the stretch, where Kenilworth cried "enough" and Mr.
Bennett's handsome filly came on home by herself.
Coburn, by a handsome piece of riding, landed Lauréate a winner by a nose over Merito in the fourth race. Merito was by far the best, but Mathews rode her like an amateur at the end and her defeat must be charged to him.

Coburn was very much in evidence. Besides winning with Miss Bennett and Laureate he was first past the post on Ed Austin, making it three purses for Mr. Bennett, and also second with Emma C. L.

A good-looking chestnut colt by Tom Bowling—Belle Ginn, belonging to Watkins & Goldsby, broke his leg while being schooled to the barrier before the first race and had to be destroyed.

It rained at intervals during the afternoon, but the track remained fast and the racing in every sense of the word was good.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ed Corrigan is thus estimated by the London Sportsman of April 18: "I returned to Newmarket, where I met Mr. Corrigan, whose anecdotes and experience of American racing are highly entertaining. I hope this gentleman will long remain with us for I know from sure authorities across the Atlantic that he is one of the right sort, and such are always welcome in this country. It is only the 'crooks' that are not wanted."

Friday Mr. W. C. Whitney purchased from John E. Madden for a long price the two-year-olds, Blue Girl, Highflyer and Blackstock, and Blue Girl at once repaid her purchase money by winning the Juvenile Stakes Saturday. He also bought a quarter interest in Yankee, the $20,000 Hanover—Correction colt, making him a half owner, as he had previously acquired a quarter interest in the supposed crack.

tus finished gamely, had good racing luck and was cleverly handled. Cougar ran well and finished strongly. Fondo showed improved form. Jim Hale showed a little early spool. Moon-bright bled or she would have won. Lief Prince ran a bad race and can do much better.
Scratched—24625 Ada N., 109; (24759) Maresa, 102; 24653 Darlene, 100.
Invictus, show, 3 to 1. Cougar, show, evens. Fondo, show, 8 to 1. Jim Hale, show, 9 to 20.

Winner—Ch. g. by Domino—Lucy Wallace.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 18 minutes. Start poor. Won in a drive; second easily.
Doublet came fast and strongly at the end under the whip and his advantage at the start helped him out. Mellocole ran a good race and would have won with a stronger rider up. Meehanus was nearly thrown over the fence at the half mile ground. Hindoonet only ran a fair race. Jennie and Dr. Nembula showed some speed, but the former did not run her race.
Doublet, show, 6 to 5. Mellocole, show, 10 to 1. Meehanus, show, 2 to 5.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won with the first three driving. Mac-gyle won through a judicious ride. Ranch let Goldone and Wyoming wear themselves out in front and getting up the last fifty yards came home strongly on the outside. Goldone ran a good game race but was made too much use of and tired. Wyoming seemed the winner when half way down the homestretch but also tired. Alicia came like a streak at the windup.

Winner—B. f. by Midlothian—Flora Hurst.
Went to post at 2:20. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driven out. Third eased at the end. Minerva was lucky, well ridden and won in a clever way. Lucy Locket was interfered with on the far turn but not enough to make any difference in her race. For a new beginner April ran a cracking good race. She acted extremely green at the post refusing to break and naturally got much the worst of the start. Coburn took her around the entire field on the far turn and everything considered she ran a much better race than the winner and should win soon when in with the same kind. Arlean B. was bumped into and knocked off her stride at the three-eighths post. Herse broke running and had no mischances. It is reported she has worked faster than the race was run. Belle of Minco ran out on the stretch turn.
Scratched—24567 Sly Maid, 105; 24360 Nimbledown, 105.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—Ch. f. by Russell—Memoria.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Miss Bennett looked finer than silk and scored in a high class way. For her size she is a grand filly. Coburn seems to understand her and rode a perfect race, hugging the rail throughout and saving every inch of ground possible. Kenilworth is perhaps the king of good lookers on the track. He may not have been quite on edge, but at that showed a high order of speed. Mathews realized he was beaten at the eighth post and wisely did not punish the colt. He was conceding Miss Bennett quite a lot of weight and on this occasion was not equal to the task. The first two far outclassed the others, who were strung out all the way. Mr. Smith showed rather a fast quarter for a selling plate of his caliber.
Overweights—Floranthé, 11 pounds.

Winner—Br. f. by Favor—Charity.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving to the limit. Emma C. L. ran a much improved race. She had plenty of speed, Coburn had her well in hand all the way, and she could have won much further off. Pirate's Queen was slightly interfered with at the start. She was also the victim of a bad ride. Gormley made his move on the far turn, where he was compelled to run around both Emma C. L. and Lady Idris, losing more ground than was necessary. Debride seemed to be running well in hand at the head of the stretch but tired badly and was driven out. Red Apple about ran his race. Lady Idris showed her usual speed, but quit badly. Expulsted showed some speed for the first three furlongs. The weight probably stopped him.
Scratched—24731 Give All, 104; 24734 Bengal, 104; 24731 Avatar, 116; 24704 Merriman, 109; 24732 Free Lance, 121; 24489 Little Singer, 116.

Time, 1:22, 25, 38, 51, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42, 1:47.

Winner—Ch. g. by Volante—Laurel.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won in a hard drive of two; third was also driving. Laureate received a perfect ride and ran a much better race than on Saturday. Coburn rode him differently, too, placing him the first part of it and coming with a rush at the end. The boy's finish was a powerful one. Merito was undoubtedly the best and, properly ridden, could not have lost. She had Laureate beaten fifty yards from the wire, but at the very end Mathews seemed to get rattled. Shut Up got away fully in his stride, showed a lot of speed and hung on longer than he usually does. Frank Ireland made a strong bid on the far turn, but found the pace too hot.
Scratched—24733 Jim W., 109.
Overweights—Merito, 3 pounds.

Time, 1:22, 24, 37, 49, 1:02.

Winner—Blk. c. by Wagner—May Kennedy.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second and third under keen pressure. Ed Austin is a high-class youngster and won impressively. He was tangled up at the start, but Coburn let the colt get well into his stride and made his move at the right time. At the eighth post Ed Austin was in trouble, but after a sharp drive he eventually won with something in reserve. John A. Clarke skinned the rail on the stretch turn, saved much ground and for an instant seemed to have Ed Austin beaten, but in the last hundred yards he hung and was lucky to be second. Bert Sargent was poorly ridden. He was taken the longest route, seemed hopelessly beaten on the turn for home, but came fast through the stretch. He would have been second in another stride. Miracle II. beat the barrier and had no excuses. He belongs in a lower class.
John A. Clarke, show, out. Bert Sargent, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Kallieratos—Paradox.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden; the next three were driving. Myth was the best and was never fully extended. He ran under a double pull all the way and is a hard horse to beat in the selling plate division at present. Trebor ran a good honest race. He took the longest route and came with a tremendous rush through the stretch. Dagmar at a false price ran to his notch. Passing the half-mile post Hood's Brigade was bumped into and almost thrown. This compelled Gormley to pull the horse sharply up. Phidias showed speed, but was killed off trying to catch Myth the first part of it. Strangest could not run fast enough to keep warm and must have a muddy track to do his best. Scratched—24729 Papa Harry, 101; (24571)Thurles, 104; 24663 El Caney, 104; 23843 Excelsis, 101; 24572 Tobe Paine, 104.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Combs held Otis back too long at the start and was clumsy at the finish. Otis stood a hard drive like a stake horse. Houck let Helen Print get her head away at the end and finished weakly. Miss Dora showed a great turn of speed but died at the finish. Dave Sommers seems to have gone back. The others seem to be poor racers.
Helen Print, show, out. Miss Dora, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Russell—Certamen.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Amazon outclassed the field, came away with ease in the last furlong and is a superior race mare over a distance of ground. Federalist is an improved horse this season and showed an unusual burst of speed today for him. Twig, a slow beginner and green, closed strongly at the end. He is a good colt, has worked well and should improve greatly with racing. Fonsolee belongs among the cheapest ones, but appears to be in excellent form. Snark quit worse than usual today. He never fancied the Eclipse course.
Scratched—21813 Redpath, 116; 22557 Chaos, 109; 21603 Venturo, 101; 20500 Bluff, 94; 24601 Maura, 89.

Winner—B. f. by Dr. MacBride—Hoyden.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Leonora Loring had worked fast and was ably piloted to victory over what appeared to be the best horse in Gold Seeker, a grand looker and highly tried. He was weakly ridden and closed strongly after a very late move. Tenagra finished gamely under strong handling. Villedda, a lusty looking filly, showed great improvement in strong hands. Shandonfield came fast when straightened out on the level end of the course. Running up and down hill did not seem to agree with him. Santa Bonita, outrun and mishandled, finished well. Eva Mine must have a longer route to show at her best. Sinecure failed to run up to his work.
Scratched—24576 Francois, 104; Bonner, 104; Hatasoo, 104.

Winner—Ch. f. by Goldfinch—Katherine.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Katherine displayed brilliant speed and marked gameness in a driving finish through the last furlong. Her race is a notable one from every standpoint and stamps her one of the three-year-old fillies of the year. Isia lost nothing by Bullman's handling and ran fully up to his best form. The Rhymer was hardly himself. He evidently still suffered from his previous heart-breaking task in which race he came out slightly lame. Lanceman moved up on the first turn with a good burst of speed and was probably short. Glade Run was eased up at the end. He has developed into a good-looking horse, has always evinced a taste for a route and was not supported in the betting, which indicated lack of condition.
Corrected weight—The Rhymer, 116.
Overweights—Isia, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Agnes Flash.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 12 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Roehampton was easily best, but under a very incompetent ride the colt was allowed to swerve badly in the last furlong and finished on the extreme outside. Wait Not seemed a sure winner in the stretch when he suddenly commenced to quit and all his jockey's skill when brought into play proved of no avail. His dickey forelegs probably gave way today as in his last race, when precisely the same thing occurred. Denman Thompson ran his race, but is evidently very moderate. Armor closed a big gap from a slow beginning. His forte is mud. Nionia gave a fair display of speed, but belongs among the cheapest. Sen De Lear is also a candidate for the maiden stakes.
Scratched—24577 In Shot, 101; (24197) Nitrate, 100.
Overweights—Denman Thompson, 1 pound; Nionia, 3; Beau, 1.

Winner—B. c. Albert—Bonnie Ola.
Went to post at 4:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Herbert, well handled and a good horse today, was certainly best. He prefers soft going. Decanter, out-run and under high pressure throughout, was slowly but surely overhauling the winner. It was strictly a two horse race, Decanter was never an early horse and requires a severe preparation to fit him. Magnificent's best race has been on this track and although probably outclassed by the first two, his race was a distinct disappointment. Royal Sterling will retrieve himself in the mud. He ran badly today. Prince Richard is strictly a sprinter and belongs among fair class selling platers.

Went to post at 5:01. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. King Bramble was put to his utmost to win by the smallest kind of a margin and at the weights and distance was best. Heliobas ran an unusual game race at the distance. He has never shown an inclination for over three-quarters or at most seven-eighths, but this year his wind is improving and with hot weather and fast tracks he is likely to prove a factor in anything up to a mile. Latson loomed up at the furlong post then died away. He was short and his forte is a route. He appears in fine bodily condition.
